Richmond, Va.:

Having for a long time suffered from the effects of a horrible blood trouble, and after resorting to medical skill and other remedies without benefit, I tried "A. B. C. Illerative.'? I have been entirely restored, and it affords me pleasure to attest its virtues. It is evidently a very great tonic and alterative, and I recommend any suffering from blood fromble, to try st.

sess of a hundred towns now being pushed orward with equal it not beit r chances of Biz years ago Clifton Forge was a nccess dirty, dingy, smoky village; but now I find too town extending "over the hills and far nway." Two large hotels are being built, numerous factories and hundreds of resi-dences and store-houses are in course of construction and a few days ago over $200,000 worth of lots were sold, and still the d. mand is for more. Lots that could have been bought six years ago for $100 recently so d for over $1,000, and this town is but the type of many others. I do not write this to boom any section or town, and to investors would any section or fown, and to investors would advise caution; but I am enthused with the enterprise I see everywhere in this section and will say, "Go it, old Virginia, and God speed you in your progress." Progressive Virginia.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] CLIFTON FORGE Va , Nov 16 -A long journey from the enterprising flads of Texar, from which I less wrote you, to this booming section of the Old Dominion gives an observer an idea of concentrated energy and capital which rather solipses the Lone Star State. It is hard to restize the fact that old Virginia has aroused from her quiet digatry and put on the mentle of progress, but such is the fact, "and he who runs may read" by the light of her glowing furnments. Progress and development will be her waten words for all time to come, and that confi-dence is based upon assured successful endance is based upon assured successful en-terprise, which will cause her advancement to become more and more rapid. The work in every direction throughout this section of Virginia is proceeding mejestically with a rush beyond the conception of our most san-quine progressionist. Millions upon millions of dollars have been brought into the State, put into manufacturing and all paying hand-somely. With the world before us to con-sume the products, with the cheapest raw sume the products, with the cheapest raw material from the recesses of our mountains, material from the recesses of our mountains, these immense factories, blast furnaces, rolling mills, foundries, &:. springing into existonce everywhere do not claim to be "infant industries" and ask to be fed by federal legislation, but are ready to enter into competition for supplying the world.

All along the C & O and N. & W. R. R. villages are fast growing into towns and towns into cities. The progress of Reanoke is but an illustration of what will be the success of a hundred towns now being pushed.

A CARD—We are aware that a number of Alexandrians go to Washington for their CHINA and GLASSWARE, and we believe that with the proper effort and attention all or nearly all of these people can be induced to buy goods in these lines at home. We intend therefore to do all in our power to further this end, and for this purpose we have selected our stock for fall with more than usual care and foresight. Our retail department, besides, we put under the especial care of our salesman, and it will be his duty to see that the stock is always full, and to attend to the wants of our Alexandria customers. We only keep "firsts" (goods selected by the manufacturer as perfect), and we buy only from the manufacturers. For this reason, we can sell you not only the best goods, but at the very lowest prices. In fina French china, we will order any of Haviland's patterns at a very reasonable price. Hoping that our efforts may be rewarded, and thanking you for part kindess, we are very truly yours, sep27
